VICTORS TAKE OFFICE MAY 1

Sophomore senators Randy Morgan and Ron Galloway ran a highly contested race for Executive Vice-President. Galloway led at the final tally with 54% of the 670 votes cast.

The race for Social Vice-President drew the most voters in this year's election. Out of 680 votes cast, Anna Coxen defeated fellow Sophomore Peggy Higgins with a 57% margin.

Junior Barb Sandquist ran unopposed for ASNNC Secretary and was elected with an impressive vote of 655 yes to 17 no.

In his second unopposed race for the office of ASNNC Treasurer, Junior Val Hein received 648 yes votes to 25 no votes. With this vote of confidence Val begins his second term of office.

The office of Vice President for Community Affairs is the last position still remaining to be filled.

Campaigning begins today with the election Wednesday.

Gary Selevan to perform

by LOUISE DAVIS

Another Saturday night at the Science Lecture Hall.....but tomorrow night it will be different. ASNNC is bringing us a good one, kids. A folksinger who says his style comes from no one and everyone. It's modern---getting away from ballads. Shades of classical. His name is Gary Selevan.

He's convinced that folk music can't negate the media and says that changes will come with 4-track quadrasonic music. He makes some changes of his own with both a 6-string and 12-string guitar. Unbelievable chords.

His perfect audience? All they have to do is dig the music, he says, and it's beautiful.

About the music? It's got to be different. Be creative. Entertain. Make people happy. His music really reflects Gary Selevan.

His lifestyle? He lives in Miami. He's working on movie soundtracks in New York. He travels. He's a transcendentalist. He has a beautiful old lady who cooks sunflower seeds.

Portions of his concerts at FVCC, BSC, and NNC will be taped and hopefully used as part of a new album. (If 3 Dog Night thought Live at the Forum was bigtime, wait till Gary Selevan scores with Live at the Science Lecture Hall!)

ASNNC has never presented anyone like Gary Selevan before. Probably because there is no one like him. (And could it be those student fee increases are at last reaping a few benefits?)

It promises to be a great concert. Something different.

Try it, you'll like it!

If bought today, tickets to the Gary Selevan concert will include a free late pass.

Cobweb policies given

Hours

shall be the same as those for the Student Center. Specifically the hours shall be:

Noon-11pm. Sunday-Thursday

Noon-1am. Friday

Noon-12pm. Saturday

The hours may be extended in the case of special events or at the direction of the Cobweb Director.

The Board of Directors will be responsible for notifying the night watchman and other appropriate personnel in special cases of hours extension.

Students using the Cobweb are expected to act with behavior appropriate for the campus and lounges of the residence halls. Students should not conduct themselves in a distasteful or discourteous manner. Students using the Cobweb should respect and honor the rights of other students who may wish to also use the Cobweb. Failure to comply with established policies will result in temporary or permanent forfeiture of the right to use the Cobweb by vote of the Board of Directors. Student groups and recognized organizations may reserve the Cobweb for special meetings and/or activities. The Cobweb Director of Board of Directors will grant such a reservation or permission for special use.

Board of Regents approves budget the coming year. Student charges are up $180, bringing the cost for a full time, on-campus student to $2475. Also, $60,000 is still needed to complete the 1/2 million dollar donation goal for the new PE building.

In other actions by the Board, there was a recommendation for an increase in the education budget for Nazarene churches in the Northwest educational zone.

The possibility of future student membership on the Board was discussed, and the regents reviewed the statement of policy on the relationship of the Board to the respective segments of the campus.

Reflections

"The great secret, Eliza, is not having bad manners or any other particular sort of manners, but having the same manner for all human souls; in short, behaving as if you were in Heaven, where there are no third-class carriages, and one soul is as good as another."

Meal hours changed

Four changes for spring term have been made by the Food and Housing Committee: (1) a cut in Saturday and Sunday breakfast time, (2) a change in Sunday Supper time, (3) a cut in weekday dinner time.

These hours are based on the poll taken Monday of final's week which surveyed the students opinion of the proposed changes.

All of these changes were made realizing that there are fewer students spring term than winter term. The first two changes came as a direct result of the opinion poll taken.

Because of the rather small opposition to cutting the Saturday and Sunday breakfast times this change has been approved. The majority favored one of the two Sunday supper times before church, so a compromise time (5:15-5:45) has been approved.

The last two changes were not proposed on the poll but have been approved. Because SAGA feeds so few people after 1:15 during the week day lunch, the closing time has been cut from 1:30 to 1:15. The decrease in week day dinner time (old time 5:15-6:15) is the most controversial change since it may create longer dinner lines, but was approved with the realization that SAGA will often be open after 6:15 to serve the baseball players.

These hours are not intended to keep anyone whose schedule does not fit them from eating the the committee said. If it is necessary for someone to eat at a different time, arrangements can be made through Dick White.

Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus to give round-up of music

A live "Western" in concert form is the novel entertainment feature provided by the world-famous Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus-- "America's original singing cowboys," to be given in the Science Lecture Hall, tonight at 8:15 p.m.

The unique program combines choral music from Josef Haydn to Richard Rodgers, authentic rodeo trick roping and campfire songs spiked with comedy and punctuated with calf bawls and coyote calls.

Founded in 1939, The Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus has been called "Ambassadors in Levis" from the land of cactus and canyons. Thus far the group has given more than 2000 concerts throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Australia; has recorded best-sellers under the Capitol and United Artists labels; has appeared on such popular network television shows as the Bell Telephone Hour and those of Ed Sullivan and George Gobel; and has given a "command performance" for the President of the United States in the 1963 White House Christmas tree-lighting ceremony.

At its headquarters in Tucson's Temple of Music and Art, The Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus, unique among the world's great choral organizations in that it has no church or school affiliation, numbers well over 100 boys between the ages of 8 and 15 elected through auditions held 3 times a year. The touring group numbers 26 to 30, chosen from among the best voices in the senior and intermediate categories who have earned top grades in their school studies as well.

Traditionally the concert programs are divided into four groups and so varied as to represent a real show. In the first group the boys sing classical choral music by such composers as Handel, Haydn, Bach and Mozart. The second group is usually given over to European folk and art songs and a generous selection of favorite Negro spirituals, climaxed by the Chorus' original and widely acclaimed version of "Waltzing Matilda," which has become virtually a Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus trademark.

Following intermission comes the group of Western songs-- such perennial favorites as "Home on the Range," "Lonesome Cowboy," "The Old Chisholm Trail," and "The Streets of Laredo" in exciting new arrangements. In a setting evocative of campfire amidst the giant Saguaro of their native state, the boys vividly mime out the action of many of the songs, demonstrate feats of rodeo roping and supply uncannily real reproductions of the animal sounds that make the Arizona territory so romantic and mysterious.

As a grand finale conductor Jeffrey Haskell leads his lads through lusty choruses from the Broadway hit shows of Richard Rodgers, Irving Berlin, Frank Loesser, Frederick Lowe, Jerome Kern and the like.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lee visited the campus during Spiritual Life Week.

Dr. Lee conducts evangelistic services

by NEIL READ and LARKETTE LEIN

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lee, who are presently pastoring Pasadena First Church of the Nazarene, have been on campus the past few days conducting Spiritual Life Week. Their activities have included morning and evening services, informal rap sessions in the dorms, a coffee hour, and personal evangelism.

Rev. Lee's chapel topics centered on "Meeting Christ After the Resurrection." Tuesday morning's chapel service was a symbolic interpretation of Jesus' meeting with the fishermen after his resurrection. They fished the entire night without success, but after answering Jesus' questions honestly and following his directions they achieved tremendous results. Likewise, if we will honestly answer the questions that Jesus speaks to our hearts and follow his directions sincerely and wholeheartedly, we can embark on a glorious adventure with God. Jesus waits for us at daybreak; it is crucial that we recognize Him as Lord.

Tuesday evening Dr. Lee initiated his three-part series on the cycle of victorious Christian living. He used Psalms 37:1-8 for his text. This passage describes the four entrances to the victorious cycle--commit, trust, delight, and rest. But it also warns sternly against fretting, which is the chief cause of leaving the cycle. Fretting can be reduced only by committing ourselves "hands down" to God, doing His will for today and leaving tomorrow with Him. Glorious freedom can be ours if we learn the secret of refusing to fret.

A native of New Bedford, Massachusetts, Dr. Lee received his A.B. degree from ENC in 1940. He pastored in Maine and New York before assuming missionary responsibilities in India from 1946-1959. In India he was a Bible school instructor to Indian pastors and also a superintendent. He pastored Nampa First Church of the Nazarene from 1960-1966 before going to Pasadena where he has seen his church grow from 564 members to nearly 1400.

Each week, in addition to the members of his Pasadena church, Rev. Earl Lee reaches approximately 5000 others by mailing 375 cassette tapes to people in 36 different countries. This unique ministry sends complete Sunday morning services by way of tapes in response to written requests from various people who are unable to attend church.

ASNNC elections most exciting ever

A number of things make this year's ASNNC elections the most exciting ever. The timing of the event was excellent since elections were only four days after the beginning of the term. This allowed us to go home after second term to sit around contemplating the elections, the anticipation rising to such a pitch that when we finally returned the entire campus exploded into campaigning excitement.

Nearly 4 percent of the student body cheered their way through the presidential forum Thursday evening. And weren't those traditional forums in the dorms something? The excitement was so high that six of the dorms couldn't bear to even organize any.

It is true of course that ten percent fewer students voted this year than last year, but that certainly does not mean there was any less excitement. The excitement electrified the air as students basked in the sun, lounged on the grass at tennis matches, and threw frizbees in the park.

But the high point of the whole week came when the student body loudly cheered and congratulated the victor's Saturday night near the conclusion of the MUN presentation "Wait Until Dark." Was that ever exciting! Not a single soul escaped shivers up the spine at that moment.

((SENATE FORUM))

Before dismissing the gallery and spectators for an executive session, the Senate did several small items of business. Approvals of several bills by ASNNC President Steve Smith were read and some pertinent points about the Senate Procedures were pointed out by Neil Read, Parliamentarian.

Nazarene Student Leaders Conference delegates were chosen and are as follows: President Steve Smith, President-elect Chuck Wilkes, Executive Vice President-elect Ron Galloway, and the new Vice President of Community Relations. They will be going to the conference the 20-22 of April in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

The Ways and Means Committee has been asked to report next week on a new design for ASB cards, and the purchase of some vacuum cleaners for general use in the dorms has been referred to the Campus Life Community for consideration.

A printed report on the recommendation by the Elections Committee was presented to the Senate, and will be used as a guideline for the upcoming elections. A suggestion from the floor of the Senate may mean a provision for possibility of write-in votes.

Time to evaluate Student Government

Now that the term of office for this year's ASNNC officers is about over and we are close to the beginning of a new administration, it is time to take an evaluative look at student government.

While general student interest has not been strong, this year's student government has been the most effective in many years. And the fact of its great competency probably accounts for some of the lack of student interest. A satisfied student body is a complacent student body--which is not necessarily a bad state of affairs; we can always find any number of other things that warrant a great deal of our attention and action if we discover we no longer need to worry about student government.

Yet a point of interest is that there remain a number of students who believe that student government still needs a lot of work and has a mountain of goals to yet strive for. However, when they see the amount of work that will be needed and, more importantly, the immense amount of brand new responsibilities that will result from new programs, they often back away from student government. The only other group around is those who run for office.

The point of this discussion is that taking up new responsibilities of increased student representation on committees, increased participation in student recruitment, and increased student service by student government is fine. But we must be careful to not bite off more responsibilities than we can chew.

THE PEOPLE....LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE....LETTERS....

Dear Editor,

Recently it was decided to cancel the movie, "With Six You Get Eggroll." This cancellation was reportedly due to the fact that the movie contained several swear words, a scene in a discotheque, and a scene involving the bare derrieres of two six-year-old children. It was thought that these scenes were contrary to "the principles of a Christian education" (said principles decide the suitability of showing a particular motion picture at NNC).

One must wonder at the narrow confines interpreted as "the principles of a Christian education." J.D. Salinger's Catcher in the Rye was last month's Scribblers Club selection. This work is filled with swearing, yet it still managed to win a Pulitzer Prize for its candid portrayal of American life in the 1950's.

Andre Gide's largely autobiographical work The Immoralist is required reading in Contemporary European Literature class. In this work Gide intimates at a homosexual relationship with a small boy, yet still manages to demonstrate the consequences of a completely selfish life style.

For that matter, a missionary film shown in College Church last year failed to be overly modest in its portrayal of women members of several African tribes. Yet each of these works is accepted at NNC.

The point is that, although each of these works contained elements that we as Christians do not condone, they each contributed in some way to our education and/or entertainment. Even though all of these works contained some "forbidden element," they all also contributed in some way to our development. The "forbidden element" failed to invalidate their worth.

What we are calling for, then, is a broader perspective in interpreting "the principles of a Christian education." This includes an open-mindedness in assessing the worth of any number of experiences. This broader perspective will contribute to the development of educational values, to the spectrum of Christian entertainment, and to a realistic view of the "real" world and its problems.

GRADUATE RECORD EXAM CHALLENGED--The constitution of the G.R.E.--the famous Graduate Record Examination--is being challenged in a US District Court case in California. A graduate of Fresno State College filed a class action suit claiming that the tests intentionally penalize "cleverness and ingenuity and wilfully discriminate against persons whose thinking processes lie at the divergent end of the intellectual spectrum, in direct violation of their right to equal protection under the 14th Amendment." The student maintains that he was refused admission to two graduate schools on the basis of his G.R.E. scores.

Crusaders upset Weber St., lose three in college classic

By RANDY CRAKER

Failure to get the big hit when needed left the Crusader's diamond squad on the short end of three of their four games in the Seventh Annual College Classic. The Crusaders did manage to pick up their initial win of the year, however, as they pounded out five hits in two consecutive innings to down heavily favored Weber State 4-3.

While getting strong pitching performances from all four starters, Coach Vail's crew managed only 8 runs in the classic not allowing much room for the hurriers to work. Denny Johnson was the victim of a 3-1 loss to the College of Southern Idaho, while Tim Wheatley lost 2-1 to Lewis and Clark State College, and Kirk Miller was handed a 5-2 decision at the hands of Idaho State University. Terry Irish was the only victor as he allowed Weber State three runs while his teammates tallied four.

In the opening game on Friday afternoon with the College of Southern Idaho, errors proved to be NNC's undoing as poor fielding let in all three of the Eagle's runs. Johnson went the distance on the hill striking out six and walking two. Ed Robinson lead the hitting charge with a pair of singles. Dale Tindall, Tim Leavell and Dave Boschker each rapped hits with Boschker's double bringing home the only run.

A seventh inning rally by Weber State nearly ended in disaster as the Wildcats banged out four consecutive hits to start the inning and narrowed the Crusader's lead to 4-3. However, Irish was then able to take control and got a strike out and a pair of force outs to end the game with runners left stranded at first and third.

Irish allowed eleven hits but scattered them well to avoid trouble until the seventh. He fanned three and walked a pair. Three singles and two doubles in the second and third innings proved to be NNC's only hits, but they made them count as they sent four runners across the plate. Bill Campbell and Ed Robinson both singled to open the second inning. Dave Boschker then slapped a double bringing both runners home. In the third Darrell Tyacke lead off with a double and raced home on a Randy Meier single. Meier eventually scored on a sacrifice fly by Boschker.

A pair of Saturday afternoon games found the Crusaders matching their opponents in hits but failing to keep pace in run production. In the first contest with Lewis and Clark both clubs had five hits apiece but first and seventh innings runs by L.C. stood up in the 2-1 decision. Wheatley walked five and had no strike outs in going the route. Tindall had a pair of hits with Robinson, Meier and Leavell also adding safeties. The lone Crusader run came in the first inning when Tyacke lead off with a walk, moved to third on a Tindall hit and scored when Robinson drilled a single through the middle.

In the finale Idaho State scored in each of the middle three innings to edge NNC and take top honors in the Classic with a 5-0 record. The first Crusader run came when Boschker singled after Robinson lead off the fifth inning with a double. The second tally resulted from a Boschker double in the seventh scoring Campbell who was aboard via a walk. Kirk Miller in absorbing his first loss of the year gave up five hits, walked five and fanned two.

Dale Tindall rapped a single to right in first game action of the College Classic. The Crusaders lost 3-1 to the College of Southern Idaho.

Springsports program needs participants

The possibility for Spring Football and Basketball are still bright if enough people sign up. Another twenty five men are needed in the football program and several more basketball enthusiasts are necessary to fill out the roster for that sport.

The tentative plan is to begin basketball as soon as possible with the football program to start on April 17. All football games will be played in the early evening hours.

If you are interested in either of these programs be sure and sign up in the CRUSADER OFFICE IMMEDIATELY!

We also need some fellows who would be willing to head up a team. They would be responsible for picking their team and then representing them during the season. If you are interested contact the Sports Editor.

There have been several girls who have signed up for football, and if enough interest is shown we might possibly have some "powder puff" games.

"IT ALL STARTED WHEN I TOLD THEM I WANTED MY LITTLE LEAGUERS TO ACT LIKE BIG LEAGUERS."

Track records set in opener; NNC invitational tomorrow by BILL HUNTINGTON (ONTARIO) - Sparked by two school record performances and Dick Huling's mile-880 double, NNC's track and field team scored their first victory of the season here last Saturday as they dominated a three-way meet with host Treasure Valley Community College and College of Idaho.

NNC's total score of 100 points easily outdistanced TVCC, which had 40, and C of I, who tallied 34.

The first event of the meet saw Crusader sprinters Dave Mangum, Gary Jeans, Steve Wolfe and Bob Jackson combine for a 440 relay clocking of 44.5 seconds, beating the former school record by a tenth.

Dennis Rabe accounted for the other new mark when he whipped the javelin 190 feet, beating the old standard of 183-4.

Middle-distance ace Huling eased through his mile and half-mile victories with 4:46.5 and 2:08.7 clockings, respectively, but ran hard in anchoring NNC's mile relay win with a 51.1-second leg.

Sprinters Jackson and Mangum and horizontal jumper Wolfe were the high point-producers for the Crusaders. Jackson ran legs on both winning relay teams, took thirds in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes and added a win in the long jump with a 21-3 3/4 leap.

Mangum, meanwhile, grabbed seconds in the 220 and 440 and was also a member of both relays. Wolfe was also kept busy as he triple-leaped 44-2 3/4 to win, took second to Jackson in the long jump and added a fourth in the 100.

Other NNC winners were Jeans in the 440 with 51.9; Van Cummings, high jump, 5-10 1/4 and Roger Schmidt in the pole vault with 12-6.

This was the Crusader thin-clads' first meet with full representation. Partial teams had previously competed in meets at Walla Walla and at Boise during spring break. In the latter, Huling's personal best 880 of 1:58.4 netted him a third place while Dave Perkins triple-jumped 42-10 1/2, also for third.

Tomorrow the tracksters will be hosting the NNC Invitational on the Nampa High cinders. Teams representing 12 area colleges will be on hand for what promises to be an outstanding meet.

Netters gain two wins

by MARV MERKEL

The tennis season officially got under way last week with three matches. After losing to Whitman in the opener on Thursday, the team picked up relatively easy wins over C of I and Eastern Oregon College. Besides the three above mentioned schools, Treasure Valley CC and Idaho State make up the rest of the tennis schedule.

For people unfamiliar with college play, six singles, and three doubles matches constitute a match. The singles line-up so far has Val Hein again at the number one position followed closely by the only senior on the squad, Greg Jamison. Marv Merkel is at the number three position, Rick Shafer at four followed by Wayne Skeen and Dave Edtl.

After the first six comes Stan Galloway and Clark Ludahl who have been making a contribution to the team.

With most of the team having more experience than last year, a better season can be expected. Wayne Skeen, a freshman, is the only new comer and non-letter winner, so there is reason to be optimistic about the rest of the season.

Golfers win, lose, tie; host invitational today

Tuning up for the Idaho-Oregon Golf Invitational which is being staged at the Broadmore Country Club today, the NNC golf team won, lost and tied in their first three matches last week.

Opening the season with the College of Idaho, the two teams played to a nine-nine tie. Tim Westerberg was medalist with an 81. Debbie Taylor, NNC's first female varsity golfer, won her initial collegiate match to help the squad gain the tie. Rick Hartwig tied his opponent, with the other two members of the team, Ken Hickey and Sam Jones, suffering losses.

The Crusader's came on strong against EOC to dump them 13½ to 1½. Rick Hartwig turned in his finest performance of the young season, a 73, to take top honors.

Westerberg repeated his first round 81 to post his second win of the year. Taylor, Jones and Hickey also bettered their opponents and turned in wins for Coach Horwood's linksters.

A tough Treasure Valley quintet handed NNC their first loss by a 9½ to 5½ margin. Westerberg again lead all scores with a fine round of 76. Jones picked up his second victory while Hartwig managed a tie.

Scoring is based on a 3 point system. The player winning the most holes over the first nine is awarded one point with an additional point going to the winner of the back nine. The final point is awarded the player with the lowest total shots for the eighteen holes.

Top average through the first three matches is held by Rick Hartwig with a 78.6 average followed closely by freshman Tim Westerberg at 79.3. The remainder of the team is shooting in the low 90's.

Five teams will be participating in the tournament which began at 8 a.m. today at the Broadmore course in Nampa. Treasure Valley, Boise State, CofI and EOC will be competing with the Crusaders on the par 72 course.

Crusaders stun BSC 9-6

by R. J.

The Crusader's finally came to life at the plate and posted their second victory of the '72 campaign as they downed Boise State 9-6, Tuesday. Slamming eleven hits and scoring more runs than they could manage in all four College Classic games, NNC downed their second Big Sky opponent of the year.

Sending men across the plate in five of the first six innings the Crusaders kept pace with the Bronco's in the early going and finally blew the game wide open in the middle innings, providing hurler Denny Johnson with his first victory.

Boise State scored in their initial time at bat but their lead was short lived as the Crusader's knotted the game in the bottom half of the inning, on a single by lead-off Darrel Tyacke and a double by clean-up hitter Bill Campbell. In the second NNC battled back into a tie after a Greg Federick home run and a sacrifice fly, (that right fielder Randy Meier prevented from being a grand slam with an over the fence catch) had put the Bronco's out in front 3-1. The tying runs came as Johnson belted a two out run-scoring double and scored on a Tyacke single which the speedy shortstop bounced over the head of the third baseman.

A Dale Tyndall double and a Meier single in the fourth put the Crusaders ahead for good. Insurance runs were added in the fifth when Jim Irish, pinch-hitting for Johnson, rapped a two-out two-run single.

Campbell, who is leading the team in hitting with a .333 mark, got another hit in the sixth before RBI leader Dave Boschker added to his total with a run producing double, closing out the Crusader's scoring.

The Bronco's managed three more runs in the late going to close the gap. A balk brought one runner home in the seventh and shortstop Greg Federick hit his second home run of the day to tally a pair of runs in the eighth.

In recording the win Johnson evened his season record at 1-1. He worked five innings allowing three runs on four hits, striking out four and issuing three base on balls. Terry Irish in his first relief appearance of the year scattered three hits for as many runs in the final four innings. Terry walked two and fanned one.

The two teams will square off again next Tuesday in Boise.

letters to the JOCK

Dear Jock Talk:

I have played varsity tennis for three years at NNC, and for the first time in those three years, an opposing team expressed their appreciation for a courteous audience.

During our match on March 30 against Whitman there was a large audience which we enjoyed having. The audience was very quiet which the game of tennis traditionally demands.

There should be little or no movement in the area immediately surround the courts.

Talking should be extremely quiet and kept at a minimum. Applause should be given between points and usually only after a definite winning shot.

Once again, a much deserved Thank-you to our tennis fans. We would also like to encourage your support for the rest of our home matches this year. We have developed a lot of pride in our team and we don't consider tennis a minor sport.

Glen Wegner is not for sale.

Maybe we shouldn't say that. Maybe we should just stick to the same old political garbage. But you'll hear enough of that this year. We just want you to know about our choice for the United States Senate.

Glen Wegner is not for sale. You can't buy his vote or his interest. He's not looking for a one-way ticket to Washington. Glen Wegner has worked hard all his life. He worked his way through college and medical school by hauling logs and building roads. To get action on environmental and health problems, he entered government service. When he found things there moving too slowly, he earned a law degree and decided to take his fight into the U.S. Senate.

Glen Wegner is tough. Some say a 33 year-old mover can't be elected to the United States Senate. We think they're wrong. That's why we want you to know more about the man who can get things done. What you'll learn about Glen Wegner just may make you want to get involved. Fill out the coupon and mail it to us. We want your concern, not your money. Glen Wegner is not for sale.
